

Marriage, Divorce, and “Remarriage” Survey

Question #1	What Bible version do you personally use when reading and studying God’s Word?
Question #2	During your time attending any Bible Study classes was there any discussion or teaching about the term “one-flesh,” a phrase Jesus used when referring to marriage?
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> I don’t recall
Question #3	What is your understanding of what the term “one flesh” means?
Question #4	Consider a situation where a divorce has occurred and both spouses are still alive. It was a first marriage for both. What Biblical reasons do you believe would allow for either party to then marry another?
Question #5	Again, consider a situation where a divorce has occurred and both spouses are still alive. It was a first marriage for both. Is there a situation where God would consider it sinful for either spouse to marry another person? Elaborate, if possible.
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> I am unsure.

It is the author’s hope that the questions and answers in this survey will lead to fruitful discussions about what Jesus taught about marriage, divorce, and “remarriage.” For more information, visit:
