WARRANTIES & TERMS OF SERVICE

TERMS of SERVICE

We want your experience with all disclosure AG products to be an amazing one, and the Meet & Greet sessions are no exception. There are a few important terms and conditions attached to any booking for our online services and are the full responsibility of the purchaser and are listed below.

All Meet & Greet packages require a deposit amount that is not refundable.

All packages must be paid for prior to the appointment and if the payee cannot attend the session with or without notice a complimentary reschedule of service will be given at a preference of the clients time subject to booking date availability. If the second session is missed the appointment service will be considered rendered in full and non refundable. Disclosure AG under some circumstances can refund 50% of non rendered services paid in full, email info@disclosureag.com

Disclosure AG reserves the right to reschedule and bears no costs nor responsibilities in the case of cancellation due to disclosures circumstances, in such a case a reschedule will be given to the payee.

Disclosure AG reserves the right to terminate any meeting at any time during the session due to, but not limited to, poor behaviour, harassment or other.

All sessions are private and confidential and under no circumstances is the client or guest to film, record, voice record, clone or in any way, shape or form capture or reproduce any of the meet and greet sessions and will be fully responsible for any damages to any form of the business, value of products and or other that may occur as a result.
