

Nahar Torah Niddah Series #25
Harchakos #6 – Heavy Objects

בזכות החיילים הקדושים ששומרים על ארצינו – הקב"ה יגן עליהם בכל מקום שהם.

Hersh Greszes

24/12/23

Today we are going to be finishing the topic of harchakos with respect to passing, including heavy objects. There are 3 examples: carrying heavy objects, placing an object in something the spouse is holding and feeding a baby while the other spouse is holding the baby.

Case/Example	Muttar/Assur	Reason	Source	Possibility to mattir/osser if...
Carrying Heavy Objects Together: Ex- stroller	Assur	קירבה	Rav Moshe, Rav Shlomo Zalman, Rav Asher Weiss	1. If no one is available to help then it isn't an act of love and muttar – Rav Eider in the name of Rav Moshe ; also the בדי השולחן 2. Getting on bus/living on top floor then it is muttar – Rav Ovadya . 3. If on a bus, the husband should lift the stroller – Rav Shlomo Zalman
Placing An Object In Something The Spouse is Holding (Ex: Keys into the wife's purse)	Assur	It is passing - שמא יגע בה	באר משה	1. Throwing into purse is muttar – בדי השולחן 2. Placing and throwing is muttar – Rav Ovadya .
Feeding A Baby While It is On Other Spouse's Lap	Muttar	Must make sure will not touch	מראה כהן	-