VEGIFEROL

Discover the Power of Plant-Based Vitamin D

100%
VEGETARIAN

Our extraction process is environmentally friendly, ensuring minimal impact on the planet while providing you with a clean and sustainable source of Vitamin D. From the moment sunlight kisses the lichen to the conscientious extraction process, every step is taken with the utmost care to preserve the integrity of our planet..

SAFE
&
EXCELLENT

Our Vitamin D is sourced from lichen, a unique organism that thrives in harmony with nature, making it an ideal choice for vegetarians. Lichen is naturally exposed to sunlight, absorbing the sun's energy and converting it into the purest form of Vitamin D3.

CLEAN
&
SUSTAINABLE

At Aurora Farmabio Pvt Ltd., we understand that your health is of paramount importance, and we are proud to offer a Vitamin D supplement that not only meets but exceeds industry standards. Our commitment to quality is underscored by the approval of the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), a mark of recognition that our product adheres to the highest levels of safety and efficacy.

WHY CHOOSE OUR LICHEN-DERIVED VITAMIN D?

»»» Our Lichen Derived Vitamin D3 (Vegiferol) offers a plant-based alternative to animal sources, making it perfect for those following a vegetarian or vegan lifestyle. Vegiferol is biologically identical to the vitamin D produced in the human body, ensuring optimal absorption and utilization. We believe in providing you with a product that not only supports your health but also aligns with your values. Our lichen-derived Vitamin D (Vegiferol) is ethically sourced and produced sustainably.

OUR PROMISE

»»» Pure and Potent: Our Vitamin D from Lichen is free from artificial additives, preservatives, and unnecessary fillers. Experience the purity of plant-based nutrition.

Quality Assurance: Rigorously tested for quality, potency, and purity, our Vitamin D supplement meets the highest industry standards, ensuring you get the best for your health.

Your Health, Our Priority: At Aurora Farmabio Pvt Ltd., your well-being is our top priority. Join us on a journey towards better health with our premium Vitamin D from Lichen.
