BISTRO MON CHERI

Modern Vietnamese fusion bistro

Asian · $$

THE ZAGAT REVIEW

Chef Kimmy Tang of 9021Pho fame returns with this Vietnamese-European fusion bistro in Pasadena, where eastern foods like lemongrass, curries or noodles meet western techniques, all through the lens of Southern California flavors and produce. The spare black and red room is modern and casual, with small, black lacquered-wood tables and drinks served in mason jars.

Excellent food, good price, small out the way setting. Nice meeting the owner chef who also published a recipe book.
