Mental Health First Aid Instructors Wanted

Join sHedway in supporting the wellbeing of the shearing industry across Australia. We are looking for two people interested in becoming accredited Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) workshop instructors for the shearing, sheep and wool industries.

We have funding available to cover:

- ✓ MHFA Instructor Training
- ✓ Up to $500 towards travel and accommodation

About the Training:

5-day instructor training courses
Held monthly in every capital city
Applicants must complete their own MHFA Certificate beforehand
(2-day course or equivalent online)

We're Looking For People Who Have:

In-depth knowledge of shearing sheds and the industry
Willing to run 2 day workshops, with sHedway's support
Experience in group facilitation (or willingness to learn)
A genuine passion for mental wellbeing

Have or willing to obtain a police check, working with children check, and MHFA certificate
Qualifications in mental health are highly regarded but not essential – training is provided.

Interested?

Please apply with a resume and short cover letter by 12th June, 2026
