

My child's school says:
Transgender policies

Gender identity is a protected characteristic

“Gender identity” is not a protected characteristic and has no meaning in law. Gender identity is a concept in which some people believe but many do not. The relevant protected characteristics are sex, and gender reassignment.