Opportunity for Clinicians Attending the Florida Woman Care 2025 Annual Meeting

We are proud to announce that Florida Woman Care will be sponsoring an on-site in-person Shoulder Dystocia AND/OR Postpartum Hemorrhage Simulation Training at the 2025 Annual Meeting scheduled for September 11-13, 2025 at the Historic Vinoy in St. Petersburg, FL.

Don't miss this opportunity to use Elevate Healthcare's Lucina Childbirth Simulator and satisfy the 2025 ABOG annual Improvement in Medical Practice (Part IV) MOC requirement!

About the Training

This innovative OB simulation utilizes a true-to-life training mannequin that brings an impressive blend of realistic and controllable birthing processes, better articulation for labor and delivery maneuvers and predicted APGAR scores based on integrated maternal-fetal physiology.

Featuring:

- Lifelike birthing fetus with no connection ports
- Realistic palpable uterine contractions and FHR tracing
- Integrated maternal-fetal physiological modeling
- Realistic shoulder dystocia with presentation of turtle-sign and ability to perform all maneuvers to relieve dystocia
- Realistic postpartum hemorrhage with boggy uterus
- Application of pharmacological and mechanical treatment methods for shoulder dystocia and postpartum hemorrhage
- Assembly of team and demonstration of communication skills
- Review of updates and standards of care in the treatment of shoulder dystocia

The sessions will be led by Rhona A. Magaril, MD and Jennifer Houston, MSN, NEA-BC, RN-BC, with experienced Elevate Healthcare Clinical Educators.
