BRADENTON, Florida - Today Eleuterio "Junior" Salazar broke his silence over negative Facebook posts that were anonymously emailed to news outlets and published by the Bradenton Herald on July 26, 2019. Mr. Salazar sat down with Gabrielle Arzola at Spectrum Bay News 9 for an open, honest, and candid interview about the posts. Mr. Salazar said, "we don't think about the consequences or the potential consequences" in regard to Facebook posts. "I apologize because at the end of the day accepting ownership will get you farther than being a coward and walking away," Mr. Salazar added. Mr. Salazar and the Salazar for City Council Ward 5 Campaign vow to be a transparent grassroots campaign and work to move past these posts while educating the youth on the importance of monitoring and controlling what they post on Social Media. "Today we begin the process of moving forward for Ward 5 and ensuring the people of Ward 5 will continue to be represented on Bradenton City Council. I will not allow negative political smears and Facebook posts that do not represent me or my character to distract me from the hard work needed to ensure the people of Ward 5 have a voice." Salazar said.
