Reverend Dr. Roy V. Elliott, Jr

Reverend Dr. Roy V. Elliott, Jr., D.B.E., is a passionate pastor, visionary leader, and devoted servant of God whose ministry extends across the local church, state convention, and national levels. A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, he is the eldest son of Roy V. Elliott, Sr. and the late Bernice Graham-Elliott.

Dr. Elliott has faithfully served in pastoral ministry since April 2006, marking more than nineteen years of preaching, shepherding, and service. He pastored Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Camden, Arkansas, for twelve years and seven months before being called to serve as Senior Pastor of Liberty Hill Missionary Baptist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas, where he has served since December 2018. His ministry is characterized by biblical conviction, compassionate leadership, and a deep commitment to discipleship and community transformation.

A lifelong learner and gifted educator, Dr. Elliott is a graduate of Parkview Arts and Science Magnet High School, Philander Smith College (now University), Webster University, and Andersonville Theological Seminary, where he earned the Doctor of Biblical Exposition, magna cum laude. His academic training fuels his passion for equipping believers with sound doctrine and practical ministry insight.

Dr. Elliott’s leadership journey includes serving as Former Dean of Christian Education in the Greater Bradley District Association, Past President of the Greater Little Rock Baptist Pastors and Ministers Conference, and Former Assistant Dean of the Consolidated Missionary Baptist State Congress of Christian Education. He currently serves as State Dean of Christian Education for the Consolidated Missionary Baptist State Convention of Arkansas and as a member of the Board of Directors for the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. These roles reflect his ongoing commitment to leadership development, education, and denominational advancement.

In addition to his preaching and teaching ministry, Dr. Elliott is the founder of Bible Scholars Bookstore LLC, a faith-based company dedicated to promoting biblical literacy and discipleship. He is also the creator of the “Voices from the Hill” Podcast, a platform that engages the Christian community in biblically grounded conversations on faith, culture, and leadership.

Dr. Elliott is married to Zandra Marie Elliott, his greatest encourager and partner in ministry. Together, they share four daughters and three grandchildren. His life and leadership are guided by one enduring conviction: to glorify God by empowering His people through truth, wisdom, and love.
