

From Bishop John Hind

Please convey my best wishes to Trevor and the congregation and assure them of my prayers on what will be a sad occasion but also one of great thankfulness and hope for the future.

Fr Trevor and I first met more years ago than I like to remember (44 in fact!). Since then I have known him to be a faithful Christian, a devoted priest and a diligent pastor. These have been difficult years for the Church of England and we should all be profoundly grateful for Trevor's steady perseverance and cheerful resilience. I pray earnestly for him that God will bless his retirement and continue to make him a blessing to others.

With my best wishes and prayers.

John
