Saint Irenaeus
c125—205

One of the more obscure saints in the Kalendar S Irenaeus is commemorated on the eve the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Born in Smyrna (now Izmir in Turkey) Irenaeus went as a Priest to the early Christians in Gaul , Lyons to be precise. He was sent by his Bishop to Rome in 177 after which when he returned he succeeded the first bishop of the Diocese who, as he would be, was martyred. His shrine in in the Church of S John in the city he served.
