

INTERNSHIP ASSISTANT COFFEE MANAGER

Mt. Sunzu Coffee Estate

The Mt Sunzu Coffee Estate was founded by a team of young professionals from the ETH and the University of Zurich. The coffee farm is currently being established with the aim of producing specialty coffee using the latest agronomic methods at the foot of Zambia's highest mountain – Mt Sunzu.

The Mt Sunzu Coffee Estate team seeks to recruit an intern to assist the coffee manager to lead key tasks in the farm development on site. The assistant manager will be working together with the farm manager and the plantation agronomist.

Position

You are part of the farm management team during farm development and growth. You will take part in the strategic and the operational decision making, and you are thus gaining insight in the working life of an executive.

Key Responsibilities

Amongst your responsibilities are the supervision of the coffee nursery, topography analysis using drone technologies and feasibility studies on irrigation systems. Day-to-day activities include the supervision of farm work, controlling, development and improvement of agricultural processes, development and execution of phytosanitary and plant nutrition programmes.

Competencies and Skills

- ☉ Experience in farming and/or min. BSc in Agricultural
- ☉ Interest in new farming practices
- ☉ Good command of English
- ☉ Independent personality with a problem-solving mentality and a hands-on approach
- ☉ Excellent analytical and communication skills
- ☉ Willingness to work in Zambia
- ☉ Computer literacy in any common computer software

Experience in coffee farming, irrigation systems and operation of farm machinery is appreciated but not required.

The Package

We offer a paid internship of a minimum of six months. We welcome BSc and MSc students in Agricultural, Environmental Sciences and related fields. Transportation and accommodation in Zambia are provided. You have the unique opportunity to grow with a young and motivated company and gain management experience and responsibility from day one.
