New Orleans bound as we whistle Dixie through the heart of the south on an adventure filled with music, Cajun fare, rich history, and Southern hospitality!

Visit the iconic Graceland, the home of Elvis Presley! Explore the mansion, walk the gardens, tour his custom jets, and visit the Elvis Presley Entertainment Complex for an unforgettable experience!

Learn about the history and production of iconic hot sauce as we visit the world-famous Tabasco Plant on Avery Island. Enjoy live performances of Cajun, Creole, and Swamp Pop tunes, and indulge in delicious Cajun and Creole cuisine.

Tour the grand antebellum estate of Houma's House, also known as "The Sugar Palace." Stroll through lush gardens and experience the elegance of Louisiana's plantation era.

Explore the Manchac Swamp on a guided boat tour. Get up close with alligators and other swamp creatures, as we explore the unique Louisiana wetlands.

Embark on a dinner cruise aboard the Steamboat Natchez, one of the last true steam-powered sternwheelers on the Mississippi River. Enjoy live jazz music, delicious cuisine, and stunning views of the New Orleans skyline.

Discover the rich history and vibrant culture of the French Quarter with a guided walking tour. Visit iconic sites like Jackson Square, St. Louis Cathedral, and the French Market!

Learn to prepare classic Creole and Cajun dishes at the New Orleans School of Cooking. Enjoy a fun, interactive cooking class, and sample the delicious creations at the end.

Explore the magic of Mardi Gras at Mardi Gras World, see spectacular parade floats and colorful props. Create your own Mardi Gras mask to take home as a souvenir.

Visit Beauvoir, the last home of Confederate President Jefferson Davis, and explore the only Confederate Presidential Library in the world. Then spend a leisurely afternoon in the charming coastal town of Ocean Springs!

Explore Nashville's famous Honkey Tonk Row aka Broadway, visit Laurel, Mississippi known for HGTV's "Home Town", discover the wonders of space at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center and take in a live theatrical performance at Derby Dinner Playhouse.
