Embark on a meaningful journey of faith. For Christians, the reasons for going on pilgrimage might be to set aside time for God and feel closer to him, to discern his will and guidance at times of transition or difficulty, to be strengthened in faith or to feel inspired by the communion of saints who have gone before us. Whatever you're seeking, we hope this pilgrimage gives you the chance re-energize mentally, physical and spiritually.

Discover the powerful message behind Daniel's story at Sight and Sound Theatre. From the fiery furnace to the infamous den of lions, DANIEL is one of the Bible's most hope-filled stories.

Explore the legacy of William Penn's Holy Experiment at Ephrata Cloister originally built as a retreat from worldly distractions now serves as an example of religious toleration, creative expression, intellectual freedom and human rights issues.

See DC with new eyes on Christian History Tour of the city. Learn, feel, and be inspired as you see the hand of God in US history; witness the sovereign fingerprints of our Christian heritage that are literally engraved in every corner of this great city.

Engage with the transformative power of the Bible at the Museum of the Bible. Whether exploring the Bible more deeply or discovering it for the first time, the museum offers an immersive, personal experience with the impact, narrative, and history of the Bible.

Visit Washington National Cathedral. Unlike the tradition of European cathedrals, Washington National Cathedral's West Façade features the theme of Creation, inviting visitors on a journey of spiritual rebirth.

Experience the cultural and artistic heritage of early Christianity and the region surrounding the great city of Antioch, where the disciples were first called Christians (Acts 11:26) at the Antioch Village Museum.

Tour St. Johns Church and learn the rich history of the themed Tiffany Windows that were installed over a century ago!

Visit Saint Anthony Chapel, home to the world's largest collection of Christian relics in the world, outside of the Vatican, the chapel is proof positive of the unbelievable and indescribably beautiful things that the Holy Spirit can do through even just one of us.

This Pilgrimage offers opportunities to reconnect with our Christian heritage as well as refresh our faith. We hope to come away inspired and changed in some way, perhaps with a new sense of awareness and wonder or a greater sense of life's purpose as we illuminate the journey of life by helping us to focus on 'what really matters' and to rediscover joy!
