DONATION GUIDE

Recycling

We attempt to use or recycle everything that is donated to us, and keep it out of the landfill. When items are broken or unusable, please dispose of them yourself, so more money can go to helping our community. Questions: info@vailvalleycares.com or call us at 970-926-7134.

What do we accept?

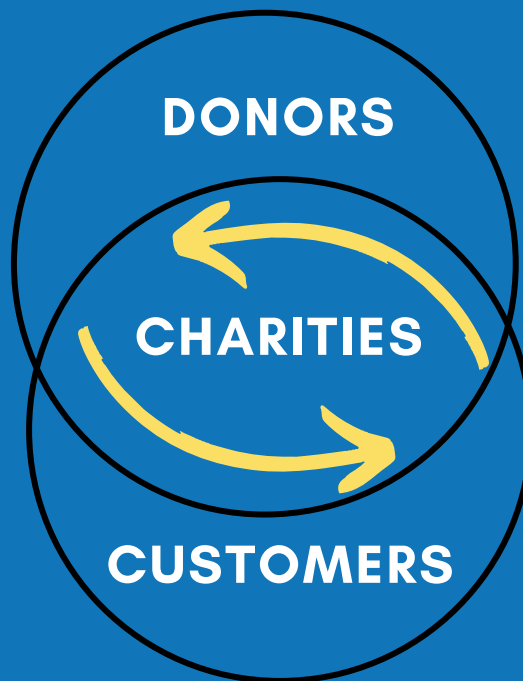

New or slightly used clothing, furniture, sports equipment, household and kitchen items, books, records, CDs and DVDs, collectibles, and anything cool we can sell (thought I would see if you made it this far)

What do we not accept?

No TVs, appliances, armoires, large office furniture, paint, tires, batteries, oil, antifreeze, and no plutonium or uranium (no matter the grade)(still reading?😏)
Items we normally don't take but are really wonderful, and you would like us to take a look at, send a picture to info@vailvalleycares.com

The fine print

Acceptance of donations is at the discretion of Thrifty Shop staff. If we determine that the item is not marketable in our stores then we may refuse to accept the item at the time. Thank you.

Vail Valley Cares Thrifty Shops is an ecumenical Christian help organization dedicated to sharing the love of God by meeting people's needs.

In 2025, we gave $520,450 in grants to 73 local charities and $50,000 in scholarships to Colorado Mountain College.

DONORS

Your generous donations of quality clothing, household items, sports equipment, furniture, etc. are crucial to us helping those in need.

CUSTOMERS

Your purchase of slightly used, good quality, inexpensive items provides the funds for grants to numerous local charities.

CHARITIES

Since 2000, Vail Valley Cares has given over $7 mln in grants and scholarships that help the people of the Vail Valley. Some of the charities we support:

- Bright Future Foundation
- Small Champions
- Youth Power 365
- 4 Eagle Senior Care
- The Cycle Effect
- Your Hope Center
- Vail Valley Salvation Army
- Vail Valley Young Life
