Historic Season

Yes, We Deliver

by Ken Untiedt

Friday & Saturday, September 15, 16, 22 & 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, September 17 & 24 at 2:00 p.m.

Jack Stephens is a young man determined not to follow in his father's footsteps as a high-powered attorney. Instead, Jack takes a job in a pizza restaurant, where he has some rather quirky co-workers. Each scene contains a new surprise as he meets some of the restaurant's most interesting customers while he visits their homes—and eventually discovers his true calling.

The Glass Menagerie

by Tennessee Williams

Friday & Saturday, February 16, 17, 23 & 24 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, February 18 & 25 at 2:00 p.m.

In a dream-like state, Tom Wingfield remembers his conflicted desires regarding the course of his life, his desperate need to escape his demanding mother, and a transformative evening involving his sensitive sister and a friend from his workplace. Exploring regret, lost youth, and emotional sensitivity using highly-charged poetic language, this masterwork of literature is filled with tenderness and trauma, love and regret, and fragility and strength—all combining to create a beautifully haunting play which mirrors the human experience.

 Smoke on the Mountain

Having been on hiatus for five years, the family sings and plays two dozen rousing bluegrass songs during this hilarious and heartwarming story of one evening of spiritual revival in 1938.

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc. www.concordtheatricals.com

ONE WEEKEND ONLY

Friday & Saturday, December 15 & 16, 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, December 17, 2:00 p.m.

The antics of the Herdmans, six of "the worst kids in the history of the world" who decide to attend Sunday School for free snacks and end up volunteering to star in the church's annual Christmas pageant, disrupt the entire process. As they learn about the Christmas story for the first time, their questions and reactions end up teaching everyone the true meaning of Christmas.

Hiding Addison

by Pat Harris

ONE WEEKEND ONLY

Friday & Saturday, May 17 & 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday & Sunday, May 18 & 19 at 2:00 p.m.

When a new resident moves in, a group of senior citizens in a retirement home unintentionally becomes involved with taking care of the great-grandchild temporarily left in her care until the father can return for the infant. Coping with the limitations of old age, adjusting their lifestyle to accommodate a baby for two weeks, and hiding their activities from staff and other residents leads to one purpose. They must hide Baby Addison.
