Season of "New" Classics

Yes, We Deliver, Too

by Ken Untiedt

Friday & Saturday, September 13, 14, 20 & 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, September 15 & 22 at 2:00 p.m.

Yes, We Deliver, Too brings back many of the same characters from Pizza Rena's to open Lamp-Lite Theatre's 2024-2025 Season. This time, Jack Stephens must face the restaurant's former owners when they sue him. To complicate matters, one of his most experienced employees is having a baby, and a former employee shows up, fresh out of jail. New customers are introduced, as is a love interest for Jack. Cast members reprising their roles include Kasey Jobe, Joe Ballenger, and Lisa Reid.

The Lion in Winter

by James Goldman

Friday & Saturday, November 1, 2, 8 & 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, November 3 & 10 at 2:00 p.m.

Love, hate, politics, threats, intrigue, inheritance, conspiracies, egos, and ambition. Christmas 1183. Henry II brings his family together, even releasing his wife Eleanor of Aquitaine from prison for the occasion! – And you thought your family holidays were dramatic! In James Goldman's classic play, an aging King Henry is attempting to determine his legacy. Navigating through the plots and ambitions of his wife, his sons, and the French King Philip isn't going to be easy.

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

by Barbara Robinson

ONE WEEKEND ONLY

Thursday, Friday & Saturday, December 19, 20 & 21, 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, December 22, 2:00 p.m.

The Herdmans, the six "worst kids in the history of the world," attend Sunday school for the free snacks and end up volunteering to star in the church's annual Christmas pageant, disrupting the entire process. But as the Herdmans experience the Christmas story for the first time, their questions and reactions end up teaching everyone the true meaning of Christmas.

The Lion in Winter, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, Black Comedy, and The Mousetrap are presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc. www.concordtheatricals.com

Hello, Dolly!

Book by Michael Stewart, Music & Lyrics by Jerry Herman

Based on the play The Matchmaker by Thornton Wilder

Original Production Directed & Choreographed by Gower Champion

Friday & Saturday, February 14, 15, 21 & 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, February 16 & 23 at 2:00 p.m.

Jerry Herman's Hello, Dolly! is considered by many to be one of the greatest musicals to ever appear on a Broadway stage. The show somehow finds the perfect balance of comedy, song and, most impressively, heart. Davy Thomas directs, with choreography by Katie Parr of the Gobel School of Dance. We look forward to bringing the wonderful world of Dolly! to life for all of you.

BLACK COMEDY

by Peter Shaffer

Friday & Saturday, April 4, 5, 11 & 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, April 6 & 13 at 2:00 p.m.

Black Comedy is an uproarious farce by Peter Shaffer (Amadeus, Lettice and Lovage), set in the Swinging Sixties with a unique twist. A sculptor throws a small party, hoping to impress a wealthy collector and win over his future father-in-law. Instead, a power outage leads to mayhem and mix-ups between neighbors and lovers, strangers and old flames. Played in a "reverse blackout," this cheeky romp lets the audience witness the zaniness that ensues "when the lights go out!"

THE MOUSETRAP

by Agatha Christie

Friday & Saturday, May 16, 17, 23 & 24 at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, May 18 & 25 at 2:00 p.m.

Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap is a classic mystery play that unfolds in a remote guesthouse where eight strangers are snowed in. As they settle in, a murder occurs, and everyone becomes a suspect. The play is renowned for its clever plot twists and intricate character interactions, ultimately revealing a surprising murderer. Since its 1952 debut, The Mousetrap has captivated audiences with its suspenseful narrative and remains the longest-running play in the West End.
