SECTION 3
The cost
Essay writing competition

WATCH: The introductory film at eak.org/wkof

People have the most wonderful time knowing Jesus and following Him. They know peace, forgiveness, hope and life. However, Jesus was very clear about the cost involved in following Him, and that if we were to answer His call to follow we had to be fully committed. There could be no turning back. They expected full allegiance. He lived in a tent but He set the bar high for those who would follow Him. To be a follower is to be fully committed to Jesus.

READ: Luke 14:25-33 – The cost of following Jesus

Jesus made it clear that He required total commitment from His followers and to follow Him would mean people would reject them. There might be opposition and even persecution. If we go the way of Jesus, then we are to take it if we're to faithfully follow Jesus, despite the cost.

1. Listen to Jesus

In Luke 14:25-33, Jesus had just been for a meal at someone's house and told the parable of the Great Banquet. He outlined the free invitation. He invited everyone to come to Him, making the point that salvation is free and the call is made to all. As He travelled on, large crowds followed Him and it was at this point that He set the bar high for the cost of being His disciple.

Jesus makes clear that He must be first; our calling in Him is our priority, we should first count the cost, and we should bring change by our presence.

Jesus said that whoever did not love Him and those who do not love Him should first count the cost.

Jesus uses the examples of a builder building a tower and a king going to war, and in each illustration He highlights that to not count the cost beforehand leads to embarrassment, defeat and possible disaster.

To be a follower of Jesus is to listen to His voice.

“Date: 11.12.2023

2. Walking the walk

Christians were persecuted in the times of the early church and they are still being tortured, imprisoned and killed today. We must never forget that parts of the global church are continually in a state of danger. We can learn so much from our brothers' and sisters' lives. We must be committed to Jesus in all challenging situations.

We cannot fully understand the level of cost that some have paid to follow Jesus. I have experienced when I have met someone who has paid a huge price for our saviour. They know more of the cost that Jesus bore for us.

Sometimes I have heard recounted stories of the beauty of Jesus drawing wonderfully close to those in need. He grants unbelievable courage. To be a follower of Jesus is to be committed to Him.
