

Annual Report of Staff Welfare Club 2017-18

The following activities were organized by Staff Welfare Club in the academic year 2017-18

Community Lunch 2017

On November 18 2017 community lunch was planned by staff welfare club. As it is a fact that if eating time is positive our mindset will be positive and energetic. Thus to refresh the minds of teachers from hectic daily routine and academic works, such community lunch were arranged. All teaching and non teaching staff brought their master piece recipes to be shared with each other. it was really a great experience to have tastes of different homes. Sweets were distributed by staff club as a token of love.

Staff tour 2017-2018

Alappuzha

16/12/2017

As a part of staff together, to develop cordial relationship a staff tour was organized in the month of December 16 . We a group of around 50 members boarded a bus and started of in the early morning hours to Alappuzha. On the way we got down at Thrissur for breakfast. By 10 30 we reached Alappuzha. We hired a boat house for a day from morning till evening. The staff had a great time and each one of the staff, enjoyed to the core. We played anthakshari and many fun games, had sea food. We started our return journey by 5 30 and reached the college campus by 11:00.

Everyone enjoyed the trip and carried pleasant memories of the same.
