Financial Update: Now summer is over we are sitting at $9,800 needed to cover commitments to date.

We acknowledge that we gather on Treaty 6 Territory, the traditional homeland of the Metis people; and we commit to knowing the reconciling Creator in the truth of this land, growing in faith through the hard work of listening, and showing love in justice by honoring treaties and uplifting Indigenous voices.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Thanks to Ruth Eliason for musical accompaniment, to all volunteers for worship support today.

If you’ve ever felt stuck, burdened by guilt, or wondered whether faith really changes anything, join us this Sunday as we begin “Because of Grace”, a five-week series about how God’s grace changes us and the way we live.

[Jesus said:] 33 “Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went away. 34 When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. 35 But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again he sent other slaves, more than the first, and they treated them in the same way. 37 Then he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ 38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.’ 39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?” 41 They said to him, “He will put those wretches to a miserable death and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.”

42 Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the scriptures: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord’s doing, and it is amazing in our eyes’?

43 “Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces its fruits. 44 The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.”

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. 46 They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.
