GOSPEL Matthew 23:1-12

1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, 2 "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses's seat; 3 therefore, do whatever they teach you and follow it, but do not do as they do, for they do not practice what they teach. 4 They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on the shoulders of others, but they themselves are unwilling to lift a finger to move them. 5 They do all their deeds to be seen by others, for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long. 6 They love to have the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues 7 and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces and to have people call them rabbi. 8 But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers and sisters. 9 And call no one your father on earth, for you have one Father, the one in heaven. 10 Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Messiah. 11 The greatest among you will be your servant. 12 All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted."

*THE CHURCH WE ARE BECOMING | October 25 – November 22
What does it mean to be a church where everyone belongs, grows in faith, and shares Christ's love? Over the next five Sundays, we will explore how we can live out Good Shepherd's mission more intentionally, building on the hopes and ideas shared in our congregational conversations.

We Give Thanks O God for those celebrating another birthday or anniversary: James Wilde, Scott Krueger, Matthias Zeepick, Koby Schmidt, Mayles Cannam, Gary Johnson, Kendrick McGunical, Brenna Balaton, Drew Doium
