Dealer Pricing & Sales Policy

To remain in good standing, all RNG Performance dealers and resellers must advertise and sell RNG products at or above the current MRP (Minimum Retail Price).

Violation of this pricing policy may result in suspension or permanent revocation of dealer status.

Every 6 months, dealer accounts will be reviewed and evaluated based on total sales volume and dealer activity.

- All backordered items will automatically ship once available.
- If an order contains both in-stock and backordered items, the entire order will ship once all items are available. Clutch kits can sometimes not be in stock due to high volumes of orders.
