Ocasiocasa; (oh KAH see oh KAH sah) = sculpture + illustration by creative duo, Jeff and Dale Ocasio. We are Jeff & Dale Ocasio and work collaboratively to create sculpted and digital art expressing an imaginative, storybook spirit. Figurative sculpture is a large part of our work which includes a wide cast of quirky characters. The world we make encompasses many of the simple things in life with a colorful, naive, and uniquely skewed perspective. Sculpting with paper masking tape over wire and reclaimed objects is where our artwork begins. Each sculpture is encased with layers of acid-free glue, color is added with more layers of acrylics, and then protected with matte varnish. Many of our sculptures are documented through our own digital illustrations and animations. We like it when people tell us that they have never seen anything like our art. Words used to describe it have ranged from "happy" to "charmingly disturbing" and we are good with that. Currently, we are based in sunny, slow-moving southwest Florida.

This 17 Jewels wrist watch is a vintage Swiss-made timepiece from the 1950s. The name "Printania" was first registered as a watch brand in 1946 by Rene Eugene Chabloz. This Watch Was Made For A Centennial Celebration; On The Dial At 12 O'clock Is A 3 Leaf Clover, Below That A 3 Line Watch Info; Printania Watch, Waterproof, Antimagnetic, At 6 O'clock; 1885 (Red Triangle) 1955, under that 2 lines Of Watch Info; 17 Jewels, Incabloc. That Being Said; The Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) has a common connection with the three-leaf shamrock and the red triangle during the 1855–1955 period. The World Alliance of YMCAs was founded in 1855. It held its centennial celebration in 1955, making this organization prominent during the century between these years. The red triangle has been the prominent symbol of the YMCA since its early history. The three-leaf shamrock was adopted by the YMCA to represent its guiding principles. Similar to how St. Patrick reportedly used the shamrock to explain the Holy Trinity, the YMCA has used the three leaves to represent the three aspects of its mission: the spiritual, mental, and physical well-being of people. I Believe This To Be A Very Rare Watch.

367	Sun Kraft Sun Lamp Converted Into A Functional Table / Desk Lamp - Click for Shipping Quote or Free Local Pick Up - Weight: 8.8 lbs. Size: Folded: 8" W x 8" D x 16.5" H. Working As Desk Lamp Not UV Brushed chrome adjustable desk lamp. This piece was once a medical lamp that utilized quartz to provide UV and ozone to "aid" in medical ailments such as skin conditions. It has since been converted for use as a functional desk lamp while still retaining the beauty and integrity of the original design. The Sun Kraft Medical Table Lamp was a popular tabletop sunlamp from the 1940s, produced by Sun Kraft, Inc. in Chicago, that used cold quartz ultraviolet (UV) and ozone rays to purportedly treat skin conditions, arthritis, and other ailments. Advertising for the lamp claimed it promoted good health, sounder sleep, and well-being. However, these claims were deemed false and misleading, leading to a false advertising lawsuit against Sun Kraft in 1945. The widespread use of such lamps and subsequent sunburn complaints led to the adoption of standards for the indoor tanning industry.
