

GCEA

Women And Children Housing Support

GCEA's goal is to purchase family housing, maintain the property to provide ongoing services for women children, and new immigrants. GCEA serves families and individuals experiencing homelessness; victims of violence; economic distress; addiction; or new asylum seekers and refugees.

What We Do

For 5 years GCEA have helped women, children & the homeless secure housing.

Housing

About 75% of GCEA clients are immigrants & asylees with language and system barriers
