There was $1,048 in fraudulent charges which will be refunded. There is $25 remaining in the ICCU checking account. The CD will be moved over when it matures. A motion to accept the treasurers report was made by (Megan/Earlynn) Approved.

Old Business: Show Committee has met and reviewed the Color Classic Showbill. Shawn brought copies of the revisions and the draft showbill was reviewed. The committee decided that high point awards will be a Picture Frame Shelf. Sixteen of these will be ordered. On Par was discussed and a motion was made and seconded (Tish/Earlynn) to offer On Par at the Color Classic. Motion passed. Aimee reported that she has received the contract and sent a copy to the board. Costs are $7,300 for the facility August 5th thru August 8th. Aimee will ask if we can haul in on Wednesday. Aimee will sign the contract and requested a $1,000 check for the deposit.

Those that attended the APHA virtual convention reported on the meetings and rule changes. The virtual conference saved money and allowed more to attend however several felt there were limitations on opportunities for discussion and networking.

Tish reported that IPHC received a Thank you card from ISHSA for sponsoring High Point APHA awards at the Spring Double Point show.

Next meeting: April 12th, 6:30PM at Meg's Barn House 329 N Middleton Rd Nampa, ID 83651

Everyone is welcome, and encouraged, to come!
