Osteen-area directions below starting with where you head north on Pell RD.

North on Pell RD for 4 miles (only one way to turn onto Pell RD - other side at intersection is biking/hiking trail)

- Pass Prideaux & pass Oakridge Farms roads on right.
- Turn right onto Saddle Creek Farms RD
- Paw prints painted on occasional power poles
- Watch out for similar street names along Pell & in Saddle Creek

IF PAVEMENT ON PELL ROAD RUNS OUT BEFORE YOU TURN ON SADDLE CREEK YOU HAVE GONE TOO FAR – TURN AROUND NOW! SUGAR SAND AHEAD AFTER PELL BECOMES A DIRT ROAD

Right/east on Saddle Creek Farms RD

- Saddle Creek Farms RD. street sign
- 1 mile of safe-when-slow dirt roads to Best Paw Forward Inc.
- No Outlet yellow sign just before turn onto Saddle Creek Farms Road
- Turn right before passing sign that says Pavement Ends
- Saddle Creek sign on white fencing
- Double bank of mailboxes on right by fence -- turn in between open gates
- You are invited guests - ignore No Trespassing sign
- 10 MILES PER HOUR ON DIRT ROAD - speeding messes up cars & road, can get you expelled from class with no refund

Short block to next turn: Left at that intersection to remain on Saddle Creek Farms RD

- Few street signs in subdivision -- landmarks help
- Avoid drainage ditches (& drainage pipe areas, except when you turn in driveway 😊 the pipe runs under our driveway of course)
- pass 2-story house on right

Right on Oak View Plantation RD

- runs between horse & cattle pastures

Immediate next (first) left at Oak Haven Plantation RD

- Second home on right
- Small Best Paw Forward sign next to driveway
- Dog signs on fence (DOG STREET green sign on gate)
- Green-roofed storage building in back with large red paw prints
- Driveway near center of front fence
- Agility & obedience rings with jumps, other equipment in front fields on either side of driveway
- Covered area next to driveway for most classes
- Precision work, private sessions, workshops usually in white training barn
