Makeup classes: When you register for a series, you are committing your family to a particular time slot for a progression of classes. We can add extra weeks if at registration or orientation you provide dates for conflicting planned events. Free makeup sessions or extra-help drop-ins are available in other Osteen group sessions when space permits during the dates of your series (those dates are listed on your receipt). We understand that life is unpredictable -- contact us concerning serious emergencies. Registration form & details, details on free group make classes: <https://bestpaw.com/sign-up>

Refund policy: For class cancellations one week or less before your first class, you will receive credit for an upcoming series, private class or workshop that begins within six months of start date of first class. There will be a $25 fee for earlier cancellations made before the first meeting with an instructor. Our open door policy for coming in and watching a group class makes it easy for you to check out our program before registering and paying.
