Questions & Comments

Please let us know if there is anything you would like us to be aware of while preparing your tax return, or anything you would like to discuss regarding the current year's return, by including a note or email when you submit your tax documents. Please note that we do not review questionnaires or tax documents until we begin preparing your return. At that time, we will contact you if any follow-up is needed. Questions or discussions related to future tax years are best addressed after tax season.
