

Title: Bad Agent

Writer: Brandon Junk, Joshua Chitty, Brian Wallace

Genre: Comedy Short Series

Synopsis: Simon is a struggling Talent Agent with a reputation for failure. When an old rival emerges and threatens his career, he pulls out all the stops in a hilarious competition to be the best of the mediocre.

SE1EP1 – “Bad Agent”

Simon meets with Alex and explains why he’s not a good fit for A-list productions.

SE1EP2 – “Reunion”

Simon is confronted by his father, renowned Talent Agent, Bruce and Bruce’s protégé, Jake.

SE1EP3 – “The Momager”

Simon, still shaken by Jake’s threats to put him out of business, fumbles during his meeting with his client’s manager/mother, the Momager, on a busy film set.

SE1EP4 – “Callback”

Simon is confronted by a client over the validity of his business after 20 self-taped auditions never warranted a callback from the studio.

SE1EP5 – “Interception”

A client visits Simon and brings Jake with him. It is revealed that Jake has taken two clients from Simon so far and plans to make good on his promise to kill his agency and his career.

SE1EP6 – “90 Day Plan”

A contractual agreement that says Simon’s talent can legally walk away from him if they have no work for a 90 day period.

SE1EP7 – “Tug-O-War”

Simon breaks out his A-game as he pushes to get a gig for each of his clients while simultaneously fighting Jake to keep representing them.

SE1EP8 – “Final Hours”

In the season finale, Simon rushes to finalize contractual agreements for each of his clients so as to keep them from walking away.