

Kevin Sheppard is the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Empower Training Institute, Inc., where he provides strategic leadership and financial oversight to advance the organization's mission of education, empowerment, and community transformation. With a professional background spanning real estate, sales, financial management, and marketing, Kevin brings a dynamic blend of entrepreneurial expertise and executive insight to his role.

As CFO, Kevin is dedicated to strengthening partnerships, ensuring organizational sustainability, and guiding Empower Training Institute's growth through sound financial strategy. Known as a forward-thinking leader, he has a proven ability to identify opportunities for innovation, foster collaboration, and inspire teams toward long-term success.

Kevin's leadership is defined by his commitment to excellence, his passion for service, and his belief in creating lasting value for individuals, families, and communities