

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC - CP

Participation in Selection. Allocation and Placement of Crude and Refined Products

Petroleum – Proper Selection of Supply and Exit participation

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC (IPL) is a Florida based diversified consultancy serving both international and US based private and public sector clients. IPL offers clients leadership in strategy development and stakeholder relationship management with additional capabilities in areas such as: logistics, product analysis and complete cycle support.

IPL focuses on key sectors such as: Supply Selection, Financial Partnering and Logistics for Crude and Refined Petroleum Products. IPL's diverse group of associates bring decades of deep knowledge, experience and leadership in advising and supporting clients as they contemplate and address complex issues such as analysis, acquisition and deployment of logistical support, . Providing solutions with relationships in place that generally require large investment minimizing risk while enhancing opportunities is a true value add, providing years of vetted success's on the acquisition and offtake.

IPL's effectiveness demonstrates the ability to quickly, proactively and thoroughly understand client needs and goals providing a "road map" for it's intellectual and relationship resources to support clients' progress toward large impact objectives. Logistics being on of the key components of our success allows our valued clients comfort and reliability are being planned and anticipated through many years of logistical experience. There are many obvious underlying components to a successful relationship, but what matters is making it happen with integrity, proper planning and execution.

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC

Petroleum Trading

With increasing demand and pressures on all major resource sectors, there has never been a more appropriate need for a reliable solution driven provider and diverse delivery mechanisms. These are the primary elements driving the business model of Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC in various sectors with high efficiency within pricing and delivery requirements satisfying our clients one at a time. Each client being very important, we have a commitment to insure personalized service with a tireless work ethic placing honesty and integrity as a primary emphasis in addition to our strong beliefs in our personal selves.

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC (IPL) is a Florida based diversified Company serving International and US based clients of all needs in partnership with several large partners with complete dedication and execution of tasks ranging from the most simple to difficult in scope. Our primary emphasis is to make all transactions transparent to our clients through expertise in Logistical Planning, Allocation Execution, Product Negotiation, Redundancy Planning and proper partnering providing a consistent prosperous customer service model.

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC

Our Core Values

- 1) Integrity
- 2) Foster Growth and Knowledge
- 3) Have Fun!
- 4) Create an amazing experience for you
- 5) Speed to Respond
- 6) Seek wise counsel
- 7) Respect, Listen and Stay Balanced
- 8) Committed to Serve
- 9) Consistent, Honest Communication
- 10) Family Focused

At IPL, we strongly believe the way we do things is just as important as what we do. Every employee is guided by our Core Values, which form a foundation on which we work and conduct ourselves. These values are not descriptions of the work we do as a company or the strategies we employ to accomplish our mission; they underlie our work, how we interact with each other and guide us in determining how to best serve our customers, employees and local communities.

Mission

Our business operates with ethical and moral awareness in the oil and gas value chain. Our profitability is a result of our consistent ability to combine precision and intelligence while supplying regions with the quality and quantity necessary to meet consumer demands.

Vision

We aspire to be a closely integrated, high performing and success driven petroleum trading and logistics company that consistently provides superior service and creates value for our customers without compromising our commitment to be socially and environmentally responsible.

Principles

Longevity is the true measure of a business success. This is accomplished by establishing a foundation built with strong moral and ethical values. We implement transparent management processes, practice the highest safety, environmental and security standards, and respect the rights of all individuals.

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC

Conclusion:

Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC is a company built as result of many years of dedication and proper selection of employees, consultants, suppliers and clients. With such a delicate balance, coupled with proper professionals, it allows a very personal relationship with each participant throughout the entire supply chain. Therefore, we can accommodate our challenges together through demand, not necessity or unrealistic goals. We are proud of our founders; Donald Swanson – Michael Spence – . In addition to the aforementioned, we have a commitment to administratively provide 24/7 support for any questions or solutions as our entire structure has committed such work ethics. Finally, it is our moral compass that guides our business, your opinion is paramount through all stages of the acquisition to completion and we always value constructive or positive feedback. We all strive for such communication. We collectively thank you in advance for your ongoing confidence in Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC, and look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship with integrity and longevity.

Respectfully,

Donald Swanson
Integrity Petroleum and Logistics, LLC
815-529-5650
don@integritypetro.com

"Price is what you pay...value is what you get."
-Warren Buffett