Awards Night - Our 38th OTHG Season

Farmingdale's Over the Hill Gang softball league recently held its annual awards ceremony. The highlight of the evening was a special presentation to retiring league treasurer Al Palleschi. For more than 35 years, "Big Al" made countless contributions to the league and it simply would not be the success it is without his dedication and hard work. League President Jim Reilly and all the players send their best wishes and gratitude to the Hall of Famer for his tireless efforts. Town of Oyster Bay Councilman Tony Macagnone presented Al with a proclamation from Supervisor John Venditto. Nassau County Legislator Michael Venditto also stopped by as did Legislator Joe Belesi. Special thanks goes to District Court Judge Rhonda Erin Fischer who helped hand out the league awards. Singleton's Manager Bob Davis accepted the Reilly Cup for winning the league's postseason tournament. Trophies were also awarded to league champions BK Sweeney's and Barco Construction. The Over the Hill Gang begins its 38th season on April 12 at Allen Park.
