Book Club – Use of Deception

Information gained from Riley Bherens

- Group contains:
  - ACAB (All Cops Are Bastards or 1312)
  - NALM (New Age Liberation Movement)
  - Protestors that support BLM
- ACAB – 30-40 members. Violent tendencies have been increasing. 25 members recently received tattoos to represent their group.
  - ACAB in Braille = 1 dot, then 3 dots, then 1 dot, then 2 dots.
  - Tattoos are between fingers, outside of wrist, forearms, calf, lower back, and along the spine.
  - They are aware they could be classified as a gang and receive Criminal Syndicate charges. “Don’t care if they get felony charges.”

  - They are aware they could be classified as a gang and receive Criminal Syndicate charges. “Don’t care if they get felony charges.”

- “These guys don’t care about felonies. They don’t work and are living off unemployment and getting the extra money from the govt. COVID distribution. The protesters that are employed reportedly work for different political campaigns.
- “Popping tires” = “They talked about going to Lowe’s parking lot and popping all the north side corner’s (Back the Blue) tires while they are on the corner protesting. Popping two tires because one tire they can put on a spare and three tires insurance pays. So only pop 2 tires.”
- “They have gotten extreme.”

Information from Jessica Burke

- Younger protesters are bringing in problems and violence
- Came with bats, shields, guns, and helmets. This gives a bad message and not part of “peaceful protesting.”
- Communicating through social media – identifying the “Back the Blue” supporters that caused problems two weeks ago

Jeri lives on the south side of PHX where we grew up. If we protested their we would need permission.

7/10/2020 11:55:58 AM(UTC-7)

Storm Storm

The police and south side have a treaty. They are not allowed to travel there with less than 3 officers in a patrol. It's tricky business

Yes, I think we would need the permission of the community

7/10/2020 12:00:23 PM(UTC-7)

Basically if we protest in south side that give police a reason to go down there in riot gear.

Putting all black men in that community in danger.

Just living there makes you a "suspected gang member"

Basically gives police the right to harass anyone they see.

Ideally if shit goes down you need to pick a role to play. But nothing is set in stone, you can be protesting and record cop activity that could benefit a lawsuit, the footage is still valuable, the only time it matters I would say is if you are a witness etc.

But we all have our track records. I've been arrested before, and protested quite a bit, so I don't think I would ever be considered neutral. But what I record is still useful info. Anyway I'm not an attorney, my husband is and can answer these questions better than me if anyone is interested in that role. I show up because I believe in what you are all doing and want to support this movement in any way I can.

So I I think I figured out a phone number and possibly an address for George S. Cervantes, 54 if someone wants to add it to the cop/official list for later verification:

[REDACTED] from 2014 to present.
[REDACTED] (probably an old address).

Honestly though, I would be surprised if that fucker hadn't changed his phone number and moved by now. His name is all over for murdering Dion Johnson

7/11/2020 2:03:55 AM(UTC-7)

Felony charges against BLM protesters are 'suppression tactic', experts say

Rights groups say prosecutors are trying to quash anti-racism protests with excessive charges threatening long prison terms

Life in prison for smashing windows? Utah charges BLM protestors.

Salt Lake City prosecutors justified the use of gang-related charges, saying protesters worked together to cause damages. Critics say the potential life sentence doesn't fit the alleged crime.
