		this stuff but almost all of the guys that are traveling are unemployed so it doesn't make sense that they would have the money to go do that as often as they have Ryan and Brandon are really close with Bruce so I have a feeling can't confirm yet that he's involved in this I'm building trust with him and he's talking to me more and more He posted a tweet about me yesterday because some of the guys were still calling me a cop so he backed me publicly I was asked yesterday to help pay for a storage unit and said I'd consider it since I wanted to run it by you and see what you thought about that I think another one of their thoughts is that they could use the unit as a safe house of protest
