I understand that folx plans were disrupted by this. Its not for everyone and its going to be impossible with our current group chat structures to effectively make that switch. I will work on this to detract misinformation.

Lots to discuss 1 on 1s. Looking forward to it today, I will be heading out to Navajo Nation tonight/tomorrow with BLMMetroPHX and will digest your feedback over the weekend so we can plan more safe and effective actions in the future.

Know your limits!

Last night, like many nights we've organized for before it, we all have limits of what we cannot do. Know your limits. I respect "No." and appreciate you knowing your limits of what you can give in a given moment. As a baseline, I am rarely asking of anything for just me. We all have to elevate past personal differences in an effort to get a job done safe and effectively. If we (yourself and I) are not on good enough terms to communicate about the work, let's resolve. If it can wait until tomorrow, today is that day.

If it can wait until tomorrow, today is that day. When we are in this fast coordination, I can not have the "No, because I am in this situation or, do you know what type of day I had?" The added vicarious trauma is ineffective at the moment to solving the problem. I am, nor will anyone else be fully aware to all you have going on in your life. The best person for that is YOU. Know your limits and stick to them. Stay safe everyone. Fielding calls already and wanted to get that out there before any more come in..

No bc Sue has been an issue in the past so i can understand where Sushi is coming from thats why im just asking "what happened" but again, if shes taking a mental health break then leave it at that. Nobody is being singled out like we kicked her out as a collective. Nobody had a problem with "demanding permission" when E made it mandatory for 2 people to vouch for someone to be added so this is fine if the circumstances needed it. But its just a mental health break, so she'll be added back when she's ready.
