AG & ART FILM FESTIVAL 2020 CALL FOR ENTRIES

The 2nd Annual Ag & Art Film Festival is Open For Entries for the 2020 Film Festival.

Vacaville, California: We are pleased to announce the 2nd Annual Ag & Art Film Festival is open for submissions for the 2020 film festival. The Ag & Art Film Festival, a four-day film festival, will be held September 10-13, 2020 in historic downtown Vacaville, California. Vacaville is a town with a rich agriculture history and is a historic roadstop on the I-80. It is just a short drive from Sacramento, San Francisco, or Napa.

All eligible entries must feature art, agriculture, or both. Submission categories include: Narrative Feature, Narrative Short, Documentary Feature, Documentary Short. Open to professionals, amateurs, and student filmmakers. Non-English films must include English subtitles. Film submissions are accepted exclusively on FilmFreeway.com. A special $7.07 ultra early submission fee (celebrating Vacaville's "707" area code) lasts until January 1, 2020. The last day to submit films is June 30, 2019

Over four days in September, we will screen feature and short films, narratives and documentaries. There will be parties that celebrate film, agriculture, and art that will feature local food and wine from the region. Festival-goers and filmmakers can mix and mingle with local farmers and artisans.

FESTIVAL COMPETITION CATEGORIES:

Juried: Best Ag Feature, Best Ag Short, Best Art Feature, Best Art Short

Audience: Best Ag Feature, Best Ag Short, Best Art Feature, Best Art Short

FESTIVAL MISSION STATEMENT: Our mission is to celebrate the things that nourish us: agriculture & art - through cinema. The Ag & Art Film Festival supports small farms and farmers and the humane treatment of farm animals.

About the Festival Director: Lisa Murray is an independent filmmaker and host of the I Have Dreams Dammit! podcast. Lisa splits her time between Los Angeles and Vacaville, CA.
