

Sunday at the Loose Chequers

The Opening Acts

Halloumi Fries £8 GF

Crispy golden & rolled in flour.
Texture matters as much as the salsa.

Prawn Cocktail £8

Swimming all the way from the North Atlantic in Marie-Rose sauce.
Served on cucumber, cherry tomato & romaine with avocado, lemon & a tiger prawn for good measure.
Served with wholemeal bread & butter because tradition matters.

XL Olives £7 - Because the finest don't fit in a jar. With warm focaccia and a dunk-worthy balsamic & olive oil dip. Perfect for pretending you're in Greece.

Nachos £8.5 - The cheesier the better, topped with sour cream, jalapenos, guacamole & salsa (fancy
a dip?)

Scallops & Spice £12 King Scallops basking on mushy peas with a fiery nduja mayo. Classical meets the unexpected in the most successful of blind dates.

Crispy Calamari £10.5 Tender rings, lightly fried, sitting on fresh baby leaves. Comes with parmesan and garlic mayo to complete the affair.

A Right Chequers Roasting

We've got goose fat roast potatoes, we're always taking the rise out of the Yorkshire pudding, please kale me now it's the vegetables, pigs in blankets, Gareth's gorgeous gravy & then you should be fairly stuff-ing-ed

Roast Chicken Supreme £16 GF

Top Rump £17 GF

Vegan tart £16

(Takes 25 Min in Oven)

The Headline Eats

Battered Fish & Chips £16

Flaky haddock in a crispy batter, served with chunky chips, mushy peas & homemade tartare sauce. Strong fishermen catch strong fish.

Chicken Caesar Salad £15

Tossed to perfection by the Romaine-ing champion, with thinly sliced chicken breast, crunchy croutons & parmesan

Chilli Con Carne £14

Hearty beef chilli with rice, sour cream & corn chips, deep spice, crisp crunch & creamy cool.

Sausage & Mash £14

House sausages, creamy mash, peas & proper gravy. When comfort calls, the pub answers with a Yorkshire accent.
