

Sunday at the Loose Chequers

Olives £5

Mini Halloumi Fries
with salsa £5

Scampi Bites with tartare £7

Fiver wings Hot or BBQ £5

Little Chilli with corn chips and sour cream £6

Sausage slices with honey mustard £5

Nachos £9.5

Crispy corn tortillas smothered in cheddar cheese, topped with sour cream, jalapenos, guacamole & salsa

Oven baked bread £6

with balsamic & virgin olive oil

Prawn Cocktail £9

Swimming all the way from the North Atlantic in Marie-Rose sauce. Served on cucumber, avocado & romaine with a lemon & a tiger prawn for good measure. Served with wholemeal bread & butter, because tradition matters.

Halloumi Fries £9 GF

Crispy, golden & rolled in flour. Paprika Texture matters as much as the salsa & ranch

Crispy Calamari £11.5

Tender rings, lightly fried, sitting on fresh baby leaves. Comes with parmesan and garlic mayo to complete the affair.

Wing it £9

BBQ, Hot. Pick your poison served with celery & ranch

Dessert Island Disks

What a load of waffle £7 - with bananas, toffee sauce & vanilla ice cream.

French Apple Tarte £7 - Served with ice cream for your pleasure.

Not single not double but triple chocolate brownie £7.5 - dark chocolate sauce & vanilla ice cream.

Tangy Lemon Cheesecake £6.5 - It's not a tart but it is very lemony with vanilla ice cream.

Chocolate chip & orange pudding £7 VE - don't mind if I do (pudding the fun in dessert) with ice cream

I scream you scream £4 - we all scream for three scoops of the finest creamiest stuff your tonsils have ever been tickled by (Chocolate, Strawberry or Vanilla)

Cheese board £9 - You've got to brie-lieve our Crumbly stilton, Kentish cheddar, crunchy apples, crackers & chutney are going to leave you completely satisfied;

Sunday at the Loose Chequers

A Right Chequers Roasting

We've got goose fat roast potatoes, we're always taking the rise out of the Yorkshire pudding, please kale me now it's the vegetables, cauliflower cheese, pigs in blankets, Gareth's gorgeous gravy & then you should be fairly stuffing-ed

Top Rump £22 GF
Roast Chicken £19.5 GF
Lamb Shank £24
Loin of Pork £19.5

The Headline Eats

Battered Fish & Chips £19 .5

Golden battered catch, chunky chips, mushy peas & tartare, curry sauce, gareth's gravy & thin white bread with butter for that perfect buttie. It's proper, ab-shoal-utely perfect fish n chips. Bound to make you a chippy happy.

Chilli Con Carne £17

Hearty beef chilli with rice, sour cream & corn chips, jalapenos, guacamole & lime wedge, deep spice, crisp crunch & creamy cool.

Sausage & Mash £17

House sausages, creamy mash, peas, Yorkshire pudding, onion rings & proper onion gravy. When comfort calls, the pub answers with a Yorkshire accent.

Veggie Tart £19

Baked vegetable tart, potato gratin, mixed vegetables, cauliflower cheese

Burgers

Served with Fries & Coleslaw

Signature Chequer: £18 Monterey jack melts over seared double smashed patties. Bacon jam and burger sauce top and bottom crunchy salad. Sauces ooze with reckless abandon. Housekeeping recommends extra napkins.

Southern charmer: £18.5 Crunchy southern fried chicken with fork-soft breast, molten Monterey jack, BBQ sauce and house salad. Golden crunch on the outside, scandalously tender within. Cheese melts into smoky BBQ like a Southern love story. It's fried, it's flirtatious. An unforgettable affair.

The Lionel Richie: £19 Char-grilled halloumi and roasted red pepper embrace fresh guac & mayo with house salad. Grilled, golden, and ready to dance all night. Creamy guac meets halloumi in a bun that sings, "Hello... is it cheese you're looking for"