

Chequers Inn Loose

Keeping Loose In Check for over 300 years

Nibbles & Starters

Marinated Olives £5

Mini Halloumi Fries
with salsa £5

Scampi Bites with tartare £7

Fiver wings Hot or BBQ £5

Little Chilli with corn chips and sour cream £6

Glazed Sausage slices with honey mustard £5

Classic Prawn Cocktail £9
Swimming all the way from the North Atlantic in Marie-Rose sauce. Served on cucumber, avocado & romaine with a lemon
& a tiger prawn for good measure.
Served with wholemeal bread & butter, because tradition matters.

Halloumi Fries £9 GF
Crispy, golden & rolled in flour.
Paprika Texture matters as much as the salsa & ranch

Oven baked bread £6
with balsamic & virgin olive oil

Crispy Calamari £11.5
Tender rings, lightly fried, sitting on fresh baby leaves. Comes with parmesan and garlic mayo to complete the affair.

Signature Chicken Wings £9
BBQ, Hot. Pick your poison served with celery & ranch

Loaded House Nachos £9.5

Crispy corn tortillas smothered in cheddar cheese, with sour cream, jalapenos, guacamole & salsa

Filthy Fries

Cheesy Chilli £10.5

Our fiery beef chilli meets melted cheese in embrace. It's bold, brash. Ranch & Jalapenos

Chicken & Waffle £11.5

A sweet salty showdown: crispy half chicken breast atop a waffle, laced with smoky BBQ sauce & micro herbs.

Full house £10.5

Cheese, bacon chilli & onion crammed like a Chequers Sunday roast.

Brisket £11.5

Tender pulled beef with smoky BBQ whispers. Siracha Mayo & Spring Onion. Fries never knew they could be this cultured.

BBQ Pulled Pork £10

Slow cooked to perfection. Sweet, sticky & ready to ruin the waistline.
Honey Mustard & Apple strips.

Battered Fish & Chips £19.5

Golden battered catch, chunky chips, mushy peas & tartare, curry sauce, gareth's gravy & thin white bread with butter for that perfect buttie. It's proper, ab-shoal-utely perfect fish n chips.
Bound to make you a chippy chappy.

Slow-Braised Chilli Con Carne £17

Hearty beef chilli with rice, sour cream & corn chips, jalapenos, guacamole & lime wedge, deep spice, crisp crunch & creamy cool.

Gourmet Sausage & Mash £17

House sausages, creamy mash, peas, Yorkshire pudding, onion rings & proper onion gravy. When comfort calls, the pub answers with a Yorkshire accent.

Garden Herbivorous Lasagne £18 Ve

Served with kale, broccoli, baby carrots & garlic bloomer

Fajitas

Skillet of joy with peppers & onions served with, cheddar, jalapenos, sour cream, homemade guacamole, salsa, re-fried beans & flour tortillas (that's a wrap)

Cajun Chicken £19 Halloumi £21 Veggie £20

Chequer Burgers

Objective: Conquer the Colossal burger

Intel: Juicy, tender-loaded meat of intimidating quality. Flavours fused with palate precision. Sides are stacked against reason. Appetite is your only weapon.

Risk level: High. Expect flavour overload, sauce spillage, extra napkin requirements and an irrepressible urge to return.

Statement: These aren't just burgers, they're the kind you'll tell your mates about (as if you need an excuse to come back). Some say they're the best in town - and we say maybe the county. Any assumed bias will be swallowed with your first bite. These unbelievable stacks defy the laws of succulence and laugh in the face of moderation. Come hungry, leave in awe.
(every stack comes in a fresh brioche bun with fries and Coleslaw)

Minimal Messer: £16 Double smash patties saturated with melted cheese, burger sauce top and bottom and house salad. Low drama, high flavour. This laid-back legend keeps it clean, but still drips with delicious intent.

Signature Chequer: £18 Monterey jack melts over seared double smashed patties. Bacon jam and burger sauce top and bottom crunchy salad. Sauces ooze with reckless abandon. Housekeeping recommends extra napkins.

Brisket force: £19.5 Smash patty blanketed by southern-style brisket and gooey cheese, siracha mayo, with a house salad crunch. Smokiness erupts onto your plate. It's a beefy, meaty, can't-stop-eaty dream.

Pulled rank: £19 double smash patties have a slow-cook surrender to our BBQ pulled pork with molten cheese & honey and mustard. Crispy house salad completes the bite. Feel your taste-buds surrender to the smokiness. Juicy pork falls apart like your willpower. Smoky, saucy, and exploding with carnivore confetti.

Blazing saddle: £19 double smash patties come dripping with cheese and house chili, bucked up by salad & ranch dressing. You need to saddle up, because the chilli is blazing and the patties are fired up. You might need a crop to ride out the flame.

Southern charmer: £18.5 Crunchy southern fried chicken with fork-soft breast, molten Monterey jack, BBQ sauce and house salad. Golden crunch on the outside, scandalously tender within. Cheese melts into smoky BBQ like a Southern love story. It's fried, it's flirtatious. An unforgettable affair.

The Lionel Richie: £19 Char-grilled halloumi and roasted red pepper embrace fresh guac & mayo with house salad. Grilled, golden, and ready to dance all night. Creamy guac meets halloumi in a bun that sings, "Hello... is it cheese you're looking for Falafel fiesta: £19 spiced falafel & spinach patty oozing with siracha mayo atop crunchy house salad. Crunchy, fiery, and plant-powered. Vegan by default, cheesy by choice. Hop to it.

Introducing...Mission Colossal: £35 with a 5, 6, 7....

EIGHT smash patties dripping with cheese, bacon jam, burger sauce & house salad. Finished with side salad & coleslaw and Chequers loaded fries.

It's outrageous. It's excessive. It's the meal that laughs in the face of moderation. Why choose between quality and quantity when you can have both?