Eastertide

The banners displayed emphasize

The Season of EASTERTIDE

Eastertide covers a fifty day period (6 Sundays) that challenges persons to reflect on the resurrection of Jesus. Ascension Day is celebrated the sixth Thursday after Easter and commemorates the last manifestation of Jesus to his followers after the resurrection. Ascension Sunday is the Sunday following Ascension Day. The season ends with the day of Pentecost. White is the appropriate color for the season, with gold as an accent color.

There are many symbols for this significant celebration. They hold meanings that enhance the celebration and express the root of Christian belief that believers will eventually be raised from the dead and enjoy eternal life. The symbol for Lent and Easter are different. Whereas the major symbols for Lent represent the agony, suffering, and pain that Jesus endured; the symbols of Easter represent new birth and renewal. Most of the symbols represent something that was dead or dormant but births forth into new life and growth.

THE HYMN OF PRAISE

“The Old Rugged Cross” #157

On a hill far a-way, stood an old rug-ged Cross, The em-blem of suf-fering and shame; And I love that old Cross where the dear-est and best for a world of lost sin-ners was slain.

(Refrain)

O, that old rug-ged Cross, so de-spised by the world, has a won-drous at-trac -tion for me; for the dear Lamb of God left his Glo-ry a-bove to bear it to dark Cal-va-ry.

(Refrain)

In that old rug-ged Cross, stained with blood so di-vine, a won-drous beau-ty I see, for t'was on that old cross Je-sus suf-fered and died, to par-don and sanc-ti-fy me.

(Refrain)

To the old rug-ged Cross, I will ev-er be true, its shame and re-proach glad-ly bear; then He'll call me some day to my home far a-way, where his glo-ry for-ev-er I'll share.

(Refrain)

Refrain

So I'll cher-ish the old rug-ged Cross, till my tro-phies at last I lay down; I will cling to the old rug-ged Cross, and ex-change it some day for a crown.

A-men.

The Responsive Reading

*Second Sunday Morning in Eastertide
(1 Corinthians 15: 12-22)*

Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen. And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is vain and your faith is also vain.

Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise.

For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen. And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins!

Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die even so in Christ all shall be made alive.
