

LEADERSHIP with TOM

Tom Bamber

Tom Bamber has gained, a vast amount of practical experience during the last 24 years, working across all sectors, with experience of different organisations in consulting, organisational development, people engagement, alignment, communication, leadership development, coaching and performance enhancement. Tom has worked with professionals working toward a range of different outcomes including high level promotion, team development, motivation, operational and strategic development, coping with stress and pressure, Hybrid Leadership and beyond.

A skilful facilitator and coach who is as comfortable working with people from the front line to the boardroom. He has worked with clients from sectors including the Housing sector, the Police, the NHS, Private health care, Consulting, Home shopping, ICT, Finance, Banking, Manufacturing, Distribution, Sales and Engineering. Working as consultant, coach trainer and in some cases interim manager to help build and engage well-formed teams.

Introduction to Leadership excellence

We will cover the following key development areas

- Our communication Preference – clear communication
- Managing the challenges in our role
- Exploring our Values and how to align the team
- Getting to know the whole team and how to draw on their motives
- Exploring how our style changes under pressure and how to get it back on track
- Giving feedback and having challenging conversations
- Option for 360 feed back
- Online one to one Coaching sessions
- Personal development plans
- Access to group learning platform – For materials surveys and interactive content

Costings please feel free to pick from any or a mix of the following options

- Option 1 - Face to face ½ day at the start and a ½ day at the end £1,300
- Option 2 - Face to face 1 day at the start and 1 day at the end £2,100
- Option 3 - 360 Survey and Personalised reports £750
- Option 4 - 1 to 1 online Leadership coaching sessions £200 per one to one

Please feel free to drop me a line to discuss options and variations

Looking forward to working with you soon!

