PRIESTS FOR THE FUTURE
ALTOONA-JOHNSTOWN VOCATION APPEAL

Bishop Bartchak would like to remind us to prayerfully consider participating in our diocese's Vocation Appeal.

Over the last few years, our diocese has had too few seminarians to replace our retiring priests, which poses an urgent need for our prayer and action. To ensure our parishes have priests for the future, our diocese's Vocation Office has developed a robust plan to reach young men and invite them to consider the priesthood. To learn more about this new plan, and to support financially, visit ajvocations.org/give.

In our church family community, this is a surefire method to connect with other ladies. In some way we are both Martha, the one who acted, and Mary, the one who simply made herself available. These ladies do a tremendous amount of service for our parish family. Not only do they provide catered meals following funerals which is no easy task for our parish, but they also make and serve food for the Valentine's Social, the St. Andrew's Social and the Nativity Festival. In addition, they make breakfast for the Confirmation class every year and prepare and serve the meal following the Penance Services.

We are looking for volunteers to assist with food preparation, serving food and clean-up. Please call the church office if you would like to volunteer. (814) 695 - 0912.
