Do You Recognize

Jesus in your midst? Is your heart burning within you? Think about the possibility of walking the path with Jesus as a priest or brother.

Families and the Gospel

In today's gospel, Jesus warns, "what comes from within can defile" a person. Families need to worry about "outside influences" but also about "inside influences."

The values our children carry for a lifetime are learned at home. Habits of the Heart are the most powerful influences on a child. That is the good news! That can also be the bad news!

Steewardship Reflection

There is a potential opportunity every Sunday for us to increase our understanding and wisdom in what it means to live a stewardship way of life. Our focus as Catholics should be on eternal life, not on the particulars of the life we experience on earth.

That does not mean that we do not strive to live holy lives and we do not commit ourselves to lives of service and love. Just as Moses addresses the hypocrites and their practice of faith, James, too, reminds us that what we do is more important than merely giving a show of faith: "Be doers of the Word, and not hearers only."

Jesus calls the elders hypocrites and points out to them how their priorities are out of order and that they need (and we do, also) to be more concerned about cleansing their hearts than their hands. One of the adages associated with stewardship is that we need to "possess loosely." That includes some of the traditions to which we may cling. Patris Corde, 3. (With a Father's Heart)An Obedient Father, Faithful Servant

St. Joseph's total obedience as a faithful servant to God is evidenced by his immediate actions in response to the four dreams from an angel sent by God. Joseph must have had a very rich interior life in order for him to hear angels, dwell in silence, give way to Mary, live chastely with her, share nonphysical intimacy with her and abide in loving attentiveness to God. St. Joseph saw Jesus grow daily in wisdom and in years and in divine and human favor.

According to Saint John Paul II, "Saint Joseph was called by God to serve the person and mission of Jesus, directly through the exercise of his fatherhood" and that in this way, "he cooperated in the fullness of time in the great mystery of salvation and is truly a minister of salvation."

Living the virtue of obedience to God should be our goal too. As we complete this month of August 2021, honoring and recognizing St. Joseph's exemplary life of obedience and mission, let us participate in some Spiritual and Corporal of Mercy, including our meditations and prayers to St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, obedient father, faithful servant, pray for us.

Saint Leonard's Home

Our St. Joseph Table fundraiser, scheduled for September 11, 2021 is fast approaching and we want to share with you what we intend to do for this year's event. The virus is still affecting our efforts to gather and celebrate together. Therefore, this is our plan, and we hope you find some wisdom in our efforts.

We are going to have an in-person event, but we are also going to offer an option of a takeout meal with wine and our traditional cookie dessert to all who would like to purchase a ticket for this year's event. Our meal will be prepared by Taddei's Catering.

We are sorry if you are not able or comfortable enough yet to sit down with us but we are looking forward to greeting you and 'checking in' on our friends, family and benefactors. Know that we are praying for you and your families during this pandemic time. Our staff continues to work diligently to keep the residents safe and Covid-free. We need your continued prayers.

Through the intercession of Saint Joseph the Worker. may God grant us the wisdom to practice Covid preventive measures, safe distancing, care for one another and remain healthy servants to those in need.

Please complete and cut off portion below and return it with your check, made out to:

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGSTwenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
