INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach 15: 15-20 The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. Sirach ran a school for young people in Jerusalem. In today's passage, he urges his students to make the right choices in life.

1 Corinthians 2: 6-10 Paul continues to address the Corinthian community who criticized him because, according to Greek standards, he lacked wisdom. To the Greeks wisdom meant a certain pattern of logical reasoning that followed fixed forms. We will hear Paul speak of a wisdom that is greater than this.

Next Sunday's Readings: Leviticus 19: 1-2, 17-18 and 1 Corinthians 3: 16-23; Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

SEMINARY DISCERNMENT RETREAT

St. Mark College Seminary, Erie, PA

April 4 - 5, 2020

Who is invited? Any young man who is seriously considering applying to seminary, who is a junior or senior in high school, college student, or older. He needs to be known and recommended by his Vocation Director of his respective diocese (Altoona-Johnstown, Buffalo, Erie, Greensburg, Rochester). The weekend is designed to assist young men to discern whether they might be called to diocesan priesthood, to familiarize them with the basic goals of seminary formation, and to help each individual determine whether he is ready to move forward with the application process. (A young man who is not yet 18 years old may attend, but his parents need to sign a release form provided by St. Mark's.)

What will be included? Presentations by seminary faculty and seminarians, informal interaction with seminarians, tour of Gannon University, Liturgy of the Hours, Eucharistic Adoration, Confession, and Sunday Mass. Accommodations and all meals will be at the Seminary.

What is the registration process? A young man interested in attending the Discernment Retreat should speak with his Vocation Director, who will determine whether this opportunity is appropriate for his stage of discernment. The Vocation Director will then make arrangements with St. Mark College Seminary. There is no charge to attend. For more information about St. Mark College Seminary, go to www.erievocations.org and click on St. Mark College Seminary.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

To experience the peace which Christ promises we must shed our grudges, jealousy and feelings of being misunderstood, unappreciated or ignored. Peace and anger don't mix. Today's gospel warns that if you want peace in your heart and home, get rid of your anger. Anger is too costly.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewardship is not an effort through our time talent and money to create a relationship with God. It is our response to God with our time, talent, and money. It is our relationship with him that already exists through his Son, Jesus Christ. Christian stewards strive to be people of integrity. They practice their God-given gift of free will to choose right over wrong, good over evil.

2020 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES DRIVE

DIocese OF ALTOONA-JOHNSTOWN

Dear Friend in Christ,

Lent is often called the “tithing of the year,” being approximately one-tenth of the year when Catholics give to God. During these next forty days, believers are challenged to renew their spiritual devotions and duties—and one of those holy duties is to support the Church.

It is also the time when the Diocese begins its annual Catholic Ministries Drive, a diocesan-wide community appeal to raise funds to support 14 vital ministries. The campaign focuses on three significant areas: Forming Clergy and Laity, Nurturing Our Youth, and Caring for the Poor and Strengthening Families.

Announcement/Education Sunday is TODAY, February 15-16, and Commitment Sunday is February 22-23. The 2020 goal is $2,294,584. Each parish is assigned a target, and dollars raised over the goal will be returned to the parish for needs at their discretion.

The CMD supports the ministries that provide programs and services beyond the resources of any single parish. The programs of our local parishes are essential because much of the work of the Church takes place at the local level.

It would be impossible for any individual parish to duplicate the scope of these ministries. By having the diocese coordinate programs such as religious education, seminarian education, and vocations, deacon and lay ministry formation, and youth and campus ministries, we eliminate the duplication of services and save both time and money. It's important to know that the 14 ministries rely solely on parishioner support, and 100 percent of donations are restricted to these ministries. If funding decreases, the ministries will face the threat of reduced services. We must all share the responsibility to sustain them.

Catholic Charities is just one example of a ministry that cannot be done in any parish. Its scope of helping our neighbors in need is enormous.

In your contribution letter from Bishop Mark and the Winter/Lent issue of PROCLAIM Christ in your Life magazine, you will meet Debbie, a recipient of emergency financial assistance, who was both brave and proud to share her Catholic Charities experience. You will also meet lifelong CMD donors, Peter and Denise Kreckel, who were gracious to share why they support the ministries.

The question for all of us is, “What can I do to serve the many missions of my Church?” Please Ignite Your Faith and support the ministries of our Diocese. Consider a gift today.

You can mail your gift directly to the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, P.O. Box 409, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648; place in your parish offertory; or make online at www.dioceseaj.org/giving (Online is an easy way to give, and you are receipted immediately. It also saves the Diocese administrative costs.)

For more information about the ministries go to www.dioceseaj.org/ministries or contact Pam Seasoltz, Director of Stewardship and Development at 814.695.5577 or pseasoltz@dioceseaj.org

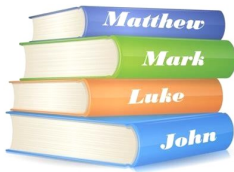

Thank you for your continued support!

Yours in Christ,

Very Rev. Alan E. Thomas
Vicar General

This is a wonderful outreach to our community, and much appreciated, especially in the cold winter months. Everyone is welcome to help, especially confirmation students.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL
 St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
 May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
