Stewardship Reflection

In Ezekiel's version of the prophecy by Isaiah we hear that God promises to bring forth a wonderful and productive growth-Jesus. St. Paul's perspective of being a branch or a limb from a tree compares us to the Body of Christ, the Church. The branches can each serve a different purpose, but all be combined to produce the fruits of the whole. Each of us is important to the "Tree of Life," which is held together by the Holy Spirit.

Only God can truly make us what we are to be and what we are called to be as part of the Body of Christ. We are all accountable for the gifts God has given us on Earth – our time, talent and treasure. One day each of us will be asked by God what we did with those gifts. How will you respond?

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil."

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS
The Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ezekiel 17:22-24 Ezekiel was a major Old Testament prophet who ministered to the Jewish people exiled in Babylon. He often used parables and dramatizations to convey his message. In this passage, Ezekiel uses the image of trees to talk about the restoration of Israel and the fall of the Babylonian Empire.

2 Corinthians 5:6-10 We continue today to read from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians. In this section of the letter, Paul describes our life on earth as a pilgrimage home to heaven.

Patris Corde (With a Father's Heart)

A Beloved Father, Watchful Defender of Christ.

St. Joseph was an example of a father tenderly loving his Son and a father obediently following God's will when he did not fully understand its purpose. The carpenter from Nazareth had to trust deeply in God while dealing with the concrete challenges his family faced in a world particularly marked by poverty, oppression, and injustice. The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple prefigures Jesus' offering on the Cross and the offering of our own lives for love of God and others.

"Joseph shapes his life in conformity with what God expected of him. God gave him all the needed graces to carry out his special mission, as God also did for Mary and of all to whom he entrusts a mission." May we have that same trust in God.

St. Joseph, A beloved father, watchful defender of Christ, pray for us.

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN

*Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy,
 our life, our sweetness and our hope.
 To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
 Turn then, most gracious Advocate,
 thine eyes of mercy toward us,
 and after this our exile,
 show unto us the blessed fruit
 of thy womb, Jesus,
 O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!
