Feast of Corpus Christi
"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect Steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Thank You, Connie Curfman!

On behalf of all the parishioners of St Mary's, I wish to extend congratulations to Connie Curfman for her many years of outstanding service and dedication to religious education at St. Mary Parish. She has had an impact on so many lives especially through her ministry as Director of Religious Education. In January of this year, Connie informed me of her desire to retire from that role. I know that we all wish her peace and good health as she enters upon her well-deserved retirement.

Connie, we are extremely grateful for the assistance, guidance, and outstanding leadership you have provided throughout the years to the parish's children. You have been dedicated to them even when it required self-sacrifice on your part. We're also grateful for the support and encouragement you have given to the catechists and parents of our parish.

Finally, we are thankful for your effort in keeping our children safe by monitoring and helping our volunteers to complete all the training and background checks required by Protecting God's Children.

Ad multos annos! May God grant you many happy years!

— Fr. Alan

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. - Matthew 11:28-29

Lord Jesus Christ, Shepherd of souls, who called the Apostles to be fishers of men, raise up new Apostles in your holy Church. Teach them that to serve you is to reign: to possess you is to possess all things. Kindle in the hearts of our young people the fire of zeal for souls. Make them eager to spread your kingdom upon earth. Grant them courage to follow you, who are the Way, the Truth, and the Life; who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Patris Corde (With a Father's Heart)

A Beloved Father,
Head of the Holy Family

The greatness of St. Joseph is that he was the spouse of Mary and the father of Jesus. In this way, he placed himself, in the words of Saint John Chrysostom, "at the service of the entire plan of salvation." In a similar way, every father plays an essential role in bringing their families to Christ, because fatherhood is at the service of God's plan for salvation.

The veneration and naming of the Feast of St. Joseph was established by Pope Sixtus in 1479 for the growing commemoration of his marriage to Mary and his conscientious fatherhood and his defense of life. So let us pray that all fathers fulfill that role well, as they love and serve their families.

St. Joseph, a beloved father, head of the Holy Family, pray for us.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS
Corpus Christi

Exodus 24: 3-8 Today's passage from the book of Exodus describes the covenant between God and the Israelite people. A covenant is a solemn agreement made between two parties and was usually sealed in blood. In ancient times, blood was considered the source of life. To sprinkle two people with the same blood bonded them as closely as if they were blood relatives.

Hebrews 9: 11-15 On Yom Kippur, the high priest sacrificed a goat on the altar in the temple. Then he took some of the blood into the holiest place in the temple sanctuary where only he was allowed to go. There, he sprinkled that blood as a renewal of the covenant made at Mount Sinai, and prayed that God would forgive the sins they had committed during the previous year. This ritual is the backdrop for today's reading from the letter to the Hebrews.
