As a Church community seeking to be faith-filled disciples and good stewards, the sacrifice of our time, talent and treasure is essential for the common good.

Bulletin Deadline: The deadline to have information considered for publication in the bulletin is noon Tuesday prior to the weekend of the announcement. Send the information to gmollish@volunteerdaj.org. or either church office.

Celebrate Mother's Day
 with the gift of prayer.
 Throughout May we honor our mothers and also those who have loved us with a mother's tenderness and compassion. Those mothers who have gone before us will also be remembered by honoring their life and legacy.

The St. Mary's Mother's Day envelope should be returned as soon as possible.
 Envelopes returned will be placed on the Altar during May, in remembrance of Mothers, both living and deceased. Extra envelopes are available at the church entrances.

Pray for Vocations!

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life.

The Permanent Deacon

The Permanent Diaconate

has been a restored Office of the Church since 1968.

Who and What's a Deacon?

A Deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church. There are three groups, or Orders of ordained ministers in the Church: Bishops, Priests (presbyters) and Deacons. Deacons are ordained as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of Christ, who came "to serve and not to be served." The entire Church is called by Christ to serve, and the Deacon, in virtue of his sacramental ordination and through his various ministries, is to be a servant in a servant-Church.

What are these "various ministries" of the Deacon?

All ordained ministers in the Church are called to functions of Word, Sacrament, Prayer and Charity; but Bishops, Priests and Deacons exercise these functions in various ways.

As ministers of Word, Deacons:

- Proclaim the Gospel
- Preach and teach in the name of the Church
- Provide spiritual direction and counsel

As ministers of Sacrament and Prayer, Deacons:

- Baptize
- Witness marriages
- Function as ORDINARY ministers of the Eucharist
- Assist Priests and Bishops at Mass
- Lead the faithful in prayer and Eucharistic Devotions
- Assist with Christian Burial by conducting Vigils, Services without a Mass, and Committals

As ministers of Charity, Deacons:

- Are leaders in identifying the needs of others,
- then marshalling the Church's resources to meet those needs.

Deacons however, are not able to:

- Offer Mass
- Hear Confessions
- Anoint the sick

These ministries remain those reserved to Priests.

The extent that the Deacon does these various things depends of course on their schedule and availability.

It is important to note that these roles and ministries of the Deacon are the norm, not the exception. In other words, these are not things the Deacon does "if the Priest is not available," etc., but rather, things that he can and normally should do by virtue of his office. In this way, although his Office is different from that of the Priest, it is also one that is shared with the Priest. Together, the Pastor and Deacon share the total pastoral, sacramental, and teaching ministry of the Church.

The Attire and Title of the Permanent Deacon:

Although very similar, the vestments of the Deacon and those of the Priest are different. Both wear a white alb. However, the colored stole of the Deacon is worn diagonally while that of the Priest is worn vertically. The outer garment of the Deacon is called a dalmatic and it has sleeves. That of the Priest is called a chasuble and does not have sleeves.

The proper formal non-liturgical attire for a Priest is of course the clerical collar. That of the Deacon is normally a tie and jacket. Sometimes the Deacon wears a lapel pin, which is a cross with a diagonal stole on top of it. This is the symbol of the office of the Permanent Diaconate.

Just as a Priest is normally addressed as "Father...", the Deacon is addressed as "Deacon..." Also, the title "Reverend" is not used for Deacons.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts of the Apostles 5: 27-32, 40-41 The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of the early Church during the first 30 years after the resurrection of Jesus. It describes God's Spirit at work, directing, encouraging and supporting the members of the Church.

Revelation 5: 11-14 The book of Revelation was written around 95 A.D. for Christians living in what is today Turkey. The Roman Emperor ordered his subjects to worship him as a god. When the Christians resisted, they were persecuted. The book of Revelation was written to give encouragement to them. Today's passage describes a vision of God's people enjoying heavenly life and singing God's praises for their victory.

Heavenly Father, we ask You to bless our diocese with selfless hearts that are willing to serve You, by serving Your Church.

Lord Jesus, raise up from our homes those called by the Father: courageous and humble men to the Priesthood, generous servants to the Permanent Diaconate, faithful people to Consecrated Life and holy men and women to the sacrament of Marriage.

Holy Spirit, help us to live our universal vocation to holiness, by listening to the Father's Voice and responding with a sacrificial love.

Holy Mary, Model of Vocations, Teach us to hear and follow your Son.
Holy Mary, Queen of Priests, sanctify our priests and obtain for us many more.
Holy Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for our families and intercede for our children. Amen.
