We do this in a fashion which reflects the teachings and example of Jesus Christ, while promoting a tradition of liturgical excellence, strong support for Catholic education in all its varieties, and enlightened social outreach to the community at large, in union with both the Diocesan and Universal Church.

INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS

Sirach 35: 12-14, 16-18 The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. It is a loose collection of thoughts on various concerns in the life of a believer. In today's section, Sirach describes how God relates to us, and how we are to relate to God.

2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18 Today we hear the concluding lines of the second letter to Timothy. This letter was written in Paul's name sometime after his death. Today's passage depicts Paul's thoughts while he was in prison, awaiting martyrdom.

ALL SAINTS DAY MASS SCHEDULE

Holy Day of Obligation

This Friday, November 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Catholics are expected to participate at Mass on the Solemnity of All Saints. The Church celebrates with all the men, woman, and children who have entered the kingdom of God and are seated as saints in glory. It is our humble prayer that someday this will also be our feast day. Remember on Saturday, November 2, the Church commemorates All Souls Day.

The Holy Day Masses will be said here on:

Thursday, Oct. 31 at 5:00 PM

(Please note that due to Trick or Treating that night, the vigil Mass is earlier than usual.)

and on the Holy Day, Friday, Nov. 1

at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM (H.T.C. School Mass), and 5:30 PM

EUCCHARISTIC DAY OF ADORATION

Friday, Nov. 1

After the 8:30 a.m. Mass until the Benediction at Noon

Praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass has been a part of Catholic tradition for centuries. Spending time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament deepens our friendship with Jesus, which also leads to a more compassionate concern for other people. We will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on All Saints Day, Friday, Nov. 1 from the 8:30 A.M. Mass until the Benediction at Noon. So as to be sure that there is someone in prayer during the whole time of exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, there is a sign-up sheet in the church entrance.

PLEASE NOTE:

The Parish Office will be closed this Friday - Monday (Nov. 1 - 4)

REMEMBERING THE DEAD

Remembering the Dead

Christian communities remember the names of their dead. These names are heard in the Prayer of the Faithful during Mass and in the chanting of the Litany of the Saints at the Easter Vigil. The names of the deceased are seen on holy cards, memorial cards, and grave markers. Masses are prayed for the repose of souls. These rituals and practices serve to keep the memory of those who have gone before us in faith present in our minds and hearts.

The Book of the Names of the Dead

During the Month of All Souls, many parishes have the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead. The Book of the Names of the Dead was inspired by the ancient practice of recording the dates of the deaths of loved ones in a necrology, a public record or registry of death. This practice provides the living with an opportunity for healing and consolation in the face of grief.

The Book of the Names of the Dead is usually displayed from the solemnity of All Saints until the beginning of Advent. It is left open for people to write the names of their deceased loved ones and for others to read the names, remember, and pray for the repose of their souls. Some parishes place The Book of the Names of the Dead near the vestibule or gathering space. Others display the book near the baptismal font with the lighted Paschal candle nearby, symbolizing that the deceased have shared in the waters of Baptism, dying with Christ and rising to new life. Placing the book by these waters gives us hope that our beloved dead now share in Christ's Resurrection.

Remembering all of these men and women who have gone before us, "marked with the sign of faith," helps us better understand and appreciate our faith in the Christ our risen Lord who conquers sin and death and brings new life to all.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

We seem to give them back to you, O God, who gave them first to us.

*Yet as you did not lose them in giving,
so we do not lose them by their return.*

Not as the world gives do you give.

*What you give you do not take away. O Lover of Souls!
For what is yours is also ours.*

We are yours and life is eternal.

*And love is immortal, and death is only a horizon,
and a horizon is but the limit of our sight.*

*Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see further;
cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly;*

draw us closer to yourself

that we may know ourselves nearer to our beloved who are with you.

*And while you prepare a place for us,
prepare us for that happy place,
that where they are, and you are, we too may be;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Trustworthy stewards practice humility, giving glory to God for all things great and small. Stewardship of treasure calls us to plan our giving; that is, giving the first portion of our income, not the last. Deciding to do this involves faith, trusting that what is leftover will be enough for our needs and the needs of our loved ones as well. Many of those who make this decision to put God first in their budgets find their faith deepened, and far from being impoverished, they find themselves enriched both spiritually and materially as well.

ST. MICHAEL

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do Thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God, cast into hell,
Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl through the world,
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
