Families and the Gospel

"Even though many found the teachings of Jesus "difficult", He did not back down. In our families, it is important to say what is difficult to hear, to speak the truth with kindness, to correct with love and guide with understanding.

Hear the Call

Couples may attend Sunday, September 12th in ALTOONA at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament or Sunday, September 19th in JOHNSTOWN at St. John Gualbert Cathedral. Both locations are handicap accessible.

Liturgies in each location begin at 2:00 PM. Bishop Mark will be the celebrant and homilist at each celebration. Refreshments/snacks will be available after the mass for anniversary couples and their families, as COVID safety measures permit.

Reservations must be made through your parish for either celebration by Monday, August 23rd.

Who is St. Joseph?

Patron of a Peaceful Death: It is speculated that Joseph died sometime before Jesus' public ministry, as there is no further mention of his actions in the New Testament. It is believed that he died peacefully with Jesus and Mary by his side.

Gold Plated Shotgun

The Family of Father Legarski donated an American Legacy Ithaca 20 Gauge Gold Plated Shotgun number 12 of 25 to the Knights of Columbus to raffle off.

The original winner "Ken Greene" from Ebensburg opted to take the $1,000 option. The council decided to run another raffle. The winner was Roger Hoover of Altoona.

With the proceeds the Knights donated $900 to Father Legarski's Endowment Fund to help future priests in the seminary. Thank you to all who participated.

Patris Corde, 3. (With a Father's Heart)

An Obedient Father, Teacher of Children

During the return journey, "When Joseph heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. He went away to the district of Galilee. There he made his home in a town called Nazareth." (Mt. 2:22-23) Joseph taught Jesus to walk, taking him by the hand: he was like a father who raises an infant to his cheeks, bending down to him, and feeding him.

As head of the family, Joseph taught Jesus to be obedient to his parents. During the hidden years in Nazareth, Joseph being a craftsman surely transmitted his modest trade to his Son, according to the customs of the time, as a master to his apprentice. Thanks to Joseph's workshop, work takes on great worth, since Jesus dedicated to it much time. Jesus learned at the school of Joseph, (not only the Carpenter's trade) to do the will of the Father.

All this makes it clear that Saint Joseph was called by God to serve the person and mission of Jesus directly through the exercise of his fatherhood, and in this way he cooperated in the fullness of time and in the great mystery of salvation and is truly a minister of Salvation.

St. Joseph, obedient father, teacher of children, pray for us.

(Pope Francis Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, 3. Dec. 8, 2020, Jacques Gauthier, Catholic Book Publishing, N.J., 2014) 2021, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown Liturgy Committee, Liturgy Office, Mary, Mother of the Church Pastoral Center, 2713 W. Chestnut Avenue, Altoona, PA 16601.

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, we hear that many of Jesus' disciples cannot accept his teachings and instead return to their former way of life, abandoning Him altogether. Jesus asks the Apostles, "Do you want to leave too?" Peter speaks up for the twelve responding "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

Peter came to the realization (to paraphrase), "I don't really see any better options, Lord. I've tried life with you and it's hard. But I've tried life without you and it's harder. It doesn't satisfy me. Where else am I going to? I choose You, Lord." And, so he humbly chooses to rely on God.

How can we keep going when it gets tough? Peter's honest answer to the choice Jesus poses shows us a way to stay true to a stewardship way life. The demands of a stewardship way of life can be difficult. And the teachings of Christ can be hard to accept. Remembering blessings and relying on Him are two keys to this beautiful way of life. INTRODUCTION FOR TODAY'S READINGS Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Joshua 24: 1-2, 15-18b After Moses died, God selected Joshua to lead the Israelites across the Jordan River into the Promised Land. Years later, as his own death approached, Joshua wished to ensure that the people would not forget all that God had done for their ancestors. In today's reading, we will hear Joshua, then the people, renew the covenant made at Mt. Sinai.

Ephesians 5: 21-32 The last part of the letter to the Ephesians, which deals with family relationships, is conditioned by the household structure of the time – wives, children, slaves – with the husband as "patriarch" over all. Today's excerpt talks about husbands and wives. Later, this letter will talk about the relationship between children and parents, and between slaves and masters. What we learn is not that we should re-create ancient social structures. Rather, we learn the timeless truth that Christ's love for us should affect the way we love one another.

Gospel John 6: 60-69
